

SOLDIERS OF PORTUGAL AND MEXICO IN U.S. TODAY

Government Permits Movement of Foreign Troops Through Southern Texas

EN ROUTE TO CHIHUAHUA

Madero Hopes to Attack From North—Other Roads Are Cut Off

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—A request from the Mexican government to move its troops through United States territory to report at points in the interior, to which rebels had severed railroad communications, was acted on today.

Both the treasury and war departments were advised that a regiment of Mexican soldiers tomorrow would travel through southern Texas from Eagle Pass to El Paso in an effort to reach Chihuahua and vicinity, the storm center of rebel activity.

General Wood, chief of staff of the United States army, said tonight he had ordered a detail of American officers to accompany the Mexicans as an honorary escort. The arms of the Mexican troops will be shipped as a coal consignment, but will be passed by the customs officials in accordance with orders from the treasury department.

The American government has twice before given permission to Mexico to transport troops through the United States and today's request was acted upon as a matter of routine.

It was suggested unofficially that rebels earlier reported in control at Juarez might make an effort to thwart the entry of the Mexican troops from the American side, but war department officials declare no such intimations had reached them.

Madero Takes Decisive Steps

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 8.—Stirred by the rebellion in northern Mexico, President Madero today asked the permanent committee of congress for permission to call a special session of the senate from which the president desires authority to communicate with the American government relative to sending troops through United States territory to enter Chihuahua from the north.

President Madero told the committee conditions were such as to make it impossible to aid the rebel-infested regions without great delay, unless such routing of troops was permitted. The

Intervention Not Intended by Any Troop Mobilization

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Intervention in Mexico by the United States is not intended by any mobilization of troops that might be made along the southern border. This was the attitude of the state department telegraphed today to various consular and diplomatic representatives in Mexico who had complained that intervention talk there was fostering a dangerous anti-American sentiment.

The state department reiterated emphatically that this government had no intention in Mexico beyond the safety of American lives and interests, but said the consular agents came reports far from reassuring as to the stability of the Mexican federal government. No specific formidable uprising was recorded, but small upheavals, regarded as symptoms of general dissatisfaction, led to an apprehension that the malcontents may unite, confronting the government with a serious crisis.

Anticipating possible orders from President Taft to mobilize an army in Texas to enforce neutrality laws and to respect for American lives in the north country where rebels are reported to be operating, the general staff has completed plans for a big troop movement when that becomes necessary. Telegrams already are prepared ordering department commanders to move their forces southward, although the organized militia is not included.

The national guardmen, it is pointed out today, cannot be sent out of the country, being available only to repel an invasion. The activity of the general staff is attributed to its eagerness to show how promptly the troops can be moved and does not forecast international developments.

Reports of unsettled conditions in the interior of Mexico came from various points today. Fifteen hundred insurgents are threatening Santa Rosalia, and there are strikes at the Madero mines at Parais, Matamoros, opposite Brownsville, Tex., also is exciting trouble. Rebels are said to be in control of the situation from Juarez, south of Casas Grandes, though no reports of fighting have reached here. Grave conditions are believed to prevail in southern Mexico. Possibilities reports being received from the states of Vera Cruz, Michoacan and Hidalgo.

General Wood today instructed Colonel Steever at El Paso to send back to Mexican civil authorities the 13 armed sergeants who fled to American territory two days ago.

LOSS OF PROPERTY AND IS GREAT

Situation at Seville Is Critical. Stricken Towns Cut Off From Assistance

MADRID, Feb. 8.—The flood situation tonight is rapidly becoming worse, and the minister of public works left for Seville, where the situation is critical. Serious conditions are reported from all parts of Spain and Portugal. Many rivers and smaller streams have overflowed their banks, inundating entire villages. All communication by rail, water or highway is interrupted and this fact is preventing the dispatch of help to the stricken towns.

The people of Seville are frantically throwing up barricades in an almost hopeless attempt to stem raging torrents. Part of the civil guards barracks has been undermined, causing its collapse.

The occupants were rescued with difficulty, and one of the rescuers was drowned. Conditions are so alarming in the city that the king and premier have decided to proceed there.

15,000 Workmen Idle

Tonight the electric light station was flooded, plunging the city into darkness. Fifteen thousand workmen are temporarily thrown out of employment.

The tributaries of the Guadalquivir river are over their banks, carrying everything before them.

A boat on its way to La Aljaba, three miles from Seville, was capsized today, three persons being drowned.

There is no news of two trains on the Madrid line, and it is feared they have been caught in the flood. At Madrid the Manzanares river has overflowed, inundating the houses along its banks.

Many Drown in Portugal

LISBON, Feb. 8.—The number of victims of the floods in Portugal is not yet known, but it will be large. Large numbers of the injured are being cared for in hospitals in the flooded districts.

The river Tagus is a raging torrent, carrying seaward corpses and merchandise of all kinds. Many barges which were anchored in the navigable part of the river were sunk at the first onslaught of the flood current. Others were swept seaward with great masses of debris from the upper part of the river, including uprooted trees and the bodies of cattle and live stock. Crops through the flooded district are ruined and all communication by wire is severed.

The chamber today voted $500,000 to aid victims of the disaster.

HOME RULE MELTING TURNS OUT PEACEFUL

BELFAST, Feb. 8.—Winston Spencer Churchill's incursions into Ulster, which threatened at one time to cause sanguinary rioting and serious loss of life, has ended without even a broken head. The first lord of the admiralty and John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, spoke today from the same platform on the home rule bill. Mr. Churchill outlined the intentions of the government with respect to self-government for Ireland, and declared that no greater boon could come to the empire than the settlement of the long and bitter quarrel between the British government and the Irish people.

Mr. Redmond appealed to Ulster "in the name of Ireland and the British empire, justice and good will," to lend its aid in settling the Irish question wisely, well and forever.

The presence in Belfast of the largest military force ever gathered to preserve peace among the Irish factions, combined with a drenching rain to check the antihome rule, whose hostility was vented mainly by hooting. But that ugly temper was aroused and the civic authorities were alarmed by possible consequences as shown by the fact that on their advice Mr. Churchill left the city by the special train two hours before the announced time of his departure, thus disappointing a huge crowd which assembled later to hear him speak.

Mr. Churchill's speech was delivered before an audience from which every effort had been made to bar all hostile elements. It aroused tremendous enthusiasm, but at one point a group of suffragettes attempted to cause a disturbance and several of them were ejected.

The night passed quietly. Great crowds paraded the streets until a late hour, but the rival parties for the most part kept to their own quarters. The Nationalists burned effigies of Lord Londonderry and Sir Edwin Carson, the Unionist leader. The troops will be kept in Belfast over Saturday as a precautionary measure.

HAWLEY WILL WAS NEVER EXECUTED

Late Railroad Magnate's Estate Passes Under Law for Cases of Intestacy

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The late Edwin Hawley made a will in April, 1903, which remained in force until the middle of last year, when Mr. Hawley died. According to a statement issued today by John B. Stanchfield, who was Hawley's personal attorney.

Another will later was prepared by Mr. Stanchfield, which, while it was modified and corrected by Mr. Hawley, never was executed.

"Mr. Hawley's estate has therefore passed under the law provided for cases of intestacy," the statement continues. "His failure to execute this subsequent will was doubtless owing to the fact that he had not been apprised of his last illness would prove fatal."

The estate, according to Mr. Stanchfield, who declined to make public either the names of the persons succeeding to it or its value, will be preserved intact, for a considerable period of time, in order to afford the fullest protection to the securities and to enable the effectuation of Mr. Hawley's plans.

A petition for letters of administration in the estate was filed today in the surrogate court, New York city, the assets of the estate being set forth as upward of $500,000. The petition asked that Frank R. Davis, the business partner of the deceased, and William P. Hawley and Walter S. Crandall, nephews, be appointed administrators.

The estate is estimated to be worth from $100,000 to $150,000.

ALMOST AN OPEN BREAK AT SNEAD MURDER TRIAL

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 8.—What threatened a serious demonstration in court resulted in the J. B. Snead murder trial today when a relative of Snead declared Mrs. Snead was remaining away from Fort Worth by the permission of an attorney for the prosecution.

Attorney Cummings, who thought he had been referred to, quickly denied the charge, whereupon the relative said he meant a private legal representative of Mrs. Snead.

The trial tonight was quietly resumed. There is bitter feeling between adherents of the two sides of the case and all entering the court room are searched for weapons.

HUNDREDS SEE STEAMER TORN FROM MOORINGS

SAN DIEGO, CAL., Feb. 8.—While hundreds lined the shore at Encinitas, witnessing the storm, yesterday afternoon, the power schooner Olympia was torn from its moorings and carried out to sea. Jesus Gonzales, a Mexican caretaker, ignorant of the ways of handling a vessel, crawled to the deck and beckoned impudently to the helpless spectators for aid. The schooner soon was carried out of sight. Captain Eaton of the power boat Kea, which arrived here today, reported sighting the upper works of the Olympia drifting off the coast.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 8.—Charles Philip Dugan, who, for 24 years, sold the entire output of his "one-man brewery" over his own counter, died today, aged 57.

BUSH TO GIVE CHIEF ADDRESS

NEW HEAD RIO GRANDE HERE FEBRUARY 22

Will Address Chamber Commerce at Washington's Birthday Banquet

Benjamin F. Bush, the new president of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, will be the guest and speaker at the annual Washington's Birthday dinner of the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Bush's acceptance of this invitation was received yesterday by H. H. Goldsmith, chairman of the special committee having charge of the arrangements for this event.

Officers and members of the Chamber of Commerce feel particularly gratified in having secured Mr. Bush as the speaker for the annual dinner. This, it is believed, will be the first public address in Colorado by the new head of the Rio Grande system, and the business interests of Colorado Springs and the Pikes Peak region are pleased to have this opportunity to meet Mr. Bush.

President Bush, a short time ago, made a trip of inspection over the line of the road, and at that time expressed his regret that he was unable to meet the people of Colorado Springs.

As the active head of this railroad system, his visit to Colorado Springs will be of importance.

Mr. Bush did not advise as to his subject.

Mr. Seldomridge, A. G. Sharp and Dr. P. O. Hanford form the committee having in charge arrangements for the dinner. Last year the Washington's Birthday luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce was attended by 500 members and it is the plan to make the birthday dinner one of the big affairs of the year in the Chamber of Commerce.

GOETHALS AND STIMSON DISCUSS CANAL RATES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Colonel Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, was in conference today with Secretary Stimson concerning canal legislation now pending before congress. They are to appear Monday before the house committee on Interstate and foreign commerce.

It has been deemed absolutely necessary by President Taft, Secretary Stimson and Colonel Goethals that the present canal rates be lowered to be competitive with the Panama canal. In order that the great maritime interests of the world may prepare for the opening of the waterway.

HASTE NECESSARY IN RECLAMATION

150,000 Americans Are Leaving U. S. Annually to Live Under Other Flags

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The necessity of expediting the reclamation of increased areas of our desert is "obvious," said C. J. Blanchard, statistician of the reclamation service, tonight, in an address before the Union League club.

"Thus as apparent," he continued, "when we consider that 150,000 good American citizens are leaving our country every year to take up homesteads under another flag."

"Our public domain, once an empire in extent, today offers no opportunity for the poor man," said Mr. Blanchard. "It will not produce crops without an expenditure of money beyond the means of the average citizen. The desert can be made productive only by irrigation, which necessitates a vast outlay in engineering work."

"The most important work our national lawmakers have before them is to lay out a plan to provide the means available for settlement of the unoccupied land as fast as our needs demand."

"The investment of half the cost of the Panama canal would add vast amounts to the national wealth."

"Conservative engineers state that there are yet 30,000,000 acres of desert to which water can be supplied and 80,000,000 acres of swamp and overflow lands which can be drained. The economic importance of such work as this scarcely can be realized. The reclamation of this vast area would provide homes on the land for 1,500,000 families, each family occupying a 40-acre farm. The addition of our nation's wealth in land values would be not less than $12,000,000,000 or 10 times the amount of our national debt."

LAND CLAIMS REPORTS MUST NOT BE DELAYED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—To meet complaints of western members of congress that adjudications of land claims were delayed seriously, Secretary Fisher today issued an order to all chiefs of the land offices, requiring that hereafter all protested cases which are pending for field investigation be reported upon within a year from the date of protest.

If a case be not so reported the field chief must submit to Commissioner Bennett of the general land office an adequate explanation.

The small land office, the fact that new laws have added to the burden of investigating claims and closer scrutiny to see that no Federal lands are lost to the United States, are among the causes given for delays.

MISS HARRIET M'ADOO MARRIES ARIZONA MAN

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 8.—Miss Harriet Floyd McAdoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, of Irvington, N. Y., today became the bride of Charles Taber Martin of Prescott, Ariz. The ceremony occurred this evening at 8 o'clock, at St. John's Episcopal church, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was given away by her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will remain in Albuquerque for a few days, after which they will make their home in Prescott, Ariz. where Mr. Martin is a banker. He is the son of Charles G. Martin of Graystone-on-the-Pudson, and reputed to be a millionaire.

TRIED TO BRIBE, SAYS OPERATOR

WOMAN ACCUSES HINES IN LORIMER CASE

Declares Lumber Man Wanted to Know Contents of Detective's Telegram

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—A mild sensation was produced today in the Senate by a committee hearing by Miss Helen Seavers, telegraph operator in a local hotel, who testified that Edwin Hines, the millionaire lumber man, had offered her money to let him see a telegram Detective Bailey had just sent to H. E. Kerr, some two weeks ago. Under cross-examination, she declared that it was not a message as she thought it was, but a postcard from Bailey, and that she had not seen it until after the hearing. Miss Seavers swore that a few minutes after Bailey sent the message, Hines came to her house and asked to see the message just sent to Kerr.

"I told him it was against the rules," said Miss Seavers. "He said, 'I will give you something if you will let me see it.' I said, 'I won't take anything nor be bribed when I know I am doing right.' He said he would come back."

Miss Seavers added that Mr. Hines then said he would put something in your paw, if she would let him see the telegram. The witness declared that Hines had money in his hands, because she saw "the green," and that she saw money in his hands because she did not want him to drop the money in there.

Told Bailey About It

Under cross-examination, Miss Seavers was confused in her statements as to whom she had talked about the Hines incident. The next day, she testified, Detective Bailey remarked to her:

"Little girl, don't show my telegrams to anyone. At that time she did not tell of informing Bailey, then, that Hines had sought to see the telegram. Later she testified that she did.

"He asked me if Mr. Hines was the man who wanted to see the telegram," declared the operator. "I replied that I did not like to tell, because I did not want to get anyone in trouble. He said I would not get anyone in trouble, if I described a man, and I told him that was the one."

Physical hostilities were threatened when Miss Seavers told of a visit paid to her by Seavers and Attorney Healy, associated with Attorney Marshall, representing the committee, in reference to the Hines incident.

"Did anybody else hold money in their hands while they were talking with you on that occasion?" while Mr. Healy and Mr. Bailey were talking with you," inquired Attorney Healy.

Attorney Considers It Insult

"That is a gratuitous insult," flashed Attorney Healy. Attorney Healy's reply was: "I am not going to be insulted."

FUEL CONCERN TRIFLES TO ENJOIN MINERS

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 8.—Appeal was made today to the United States district court to protect by injunction the Rocky Mountain Fuel company in the operation of its various coal mines in the vicinity of eight towns in Weld and Boulder counties. Among the 110 defendants named in the suit are leaders of the United Mine Workers, who served terms in the county jail for violating an injunction issued by United States Judge W. W. Whitford. They include the officers of the United Mine Workers in Louisville, Lafayette, Fredericks, Erie, Marshall and Superior. The application names also D. M. Morgan, president of District No. 15 of the United Mine Workers, who is mayor of Louisville.

The bill of complaint alleges that large numbers of men are besieging the company's mines, which are being picketed, interfering with work, and that big bodies of armed men have traveled publicly from town to town, recently scattering literature, and by means of arms trying to drive from employment the company's workmen.

United States District Judge R. E. Lewis today set February 19 as the date for hearing arguments for a temporary injunction.

SEARCH CONTINUES FOR FIEND WHO KILLED CHILD

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 8.—The finding today of the torn and bruised body of little 10-year-old Goldie Williams, only momentarily stopped the search for the stranger who enticed her away on Tuesday with the promise to buy her a pair of shoes.

All day long from sunrise to sunset the police and sheriff's forces have been following the many clues offered.

Late this evening the most promising clue seems to be that at Aurora, a stranger, fairly answering the description of a suspected "lunatic" kidnapper, was under arrest there this morning.

Officers arrived and is said to have left Aurora in a southerly direction. Deputy Sheriff Corda and two men are following this trail.

Further search today of the bath-room of the unfurnished house in which the crime was committed, Tuesday night resulted in finding some thread samples which had been carried by the peddler.

HEADQUARTERS ARE PLANNED FOR TAFT

To Be Near White House. Will Permit Hines to Attend to Official Duties

REP. M'KINLEY IN CHARGE

Bureau of Information to Tell About Administration Is to Be Feature

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Taft headquarters are to be opened here immediately and Representative William B. McKinley of Illinois, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, will be in charge of the president's political interests from now until the Chicago convention.

Mr. Taft's friends have advised such a step, but no action was taken until the passage of political work became so great that Secretary Hines found it almost impossible to handle. Besides it was interfering seriously with the necessary work of his office.

In his capacity as chairman of the Republican congressional committee, Mr. McKinley will have exceptional means of keeping in close touch with political affairs throughout the country. The headquarters will be opened as soon as suitable quarters can be found and these probably will be within easy reach of the White House.

Mr. McKinley this evening announced his intention of holding a series of conferences at once. He will begin to-morrow morning and the rest of the week probably will be devoted to mapping out a plan of campaign. Mr. McKinley later gave out a statement concerning his appointment and his plans. He said:

To Have Bureau of Information

"The suggestion came to me late this evening, came as such a surprise that I must plan for time to think. I cannot make any predictions tonight, except to reiterate what Secretary Hines already has said, that the re-nomination of Mr. Taft is assured. It is, however, the desire of the friends of the president throughout the country, to have some central place from which they can be kept advised of the details of the campaign."

The idea is now to arrange within a few days for a central bureau, from which the country will also be informed in a thorough manner as to what the administration has accomplished. There will be no attacks on other candidates nor intriguing. It will be an open campaign. Mr. Taft will stand on the record.

Premier Yuan Now Reported Working for Dictatorship

PEKIN, Feb. 8.—A new and striking view of the situation is now taken. It is believed in many quarters that Premier Yuan Shi Kai positively will succeed in saving the throne after all. The Peking papers no longer mention abdication. Certainly Yuan Shi Kai does not intend to proceed with abdication unless compelled to do so.

The opinion here is that the rebels do not control power enough to compel the premier to act. The readiness of Republicans to agree to a permanent armistice and also their willingness to grant the court concessions inspires the belief that they themselves recognize their inability to capture Peking. Reports received at the capital indicate that the Republican predicament is worse than that of Premier Yuan. Confiscations of property, forced assessments and brigandage are causes of discontent in the Republican provinces.

Should Yuan Shi Kai accede to the Republican demands, his own authority would terminate; he would be at the mercy of the Republican leaders and the heretofore loyal army would divide between the Republicans and Manchus, with the latter's supporters hostile to him, believing that he had been treacherous. By retaining the throne, whose power already has been delegated to him, he would be the country's strongest man.

Republicans Promise

The imperial premier's proposal of terms in behalf of the court, including even a provision for the eunuchs, has won the court's support and baffled the opposition of minor Manchus nobles. Yuan Shi Kai has encouraged his followers to make promises of abdication to the rebels and publicly to arrange plans to this end, but he now repudiates them, declaring that the emperor's daughter authorized him only a week ago to enter into negotiations for a settlement. The actions of his adherents, he asserts, were not authorized and are not binding upon him.

Certain members of the legation credit Yuan Shi Kai with honest motives in desiring to maintain the union by the only possible means—the throne. Many, however, are convinced that he is entrancing himself for a dictatorship, that he is wearing out the Republicans and breaking the power of the throne, whose authority will be

MITCHELL TELLS COURT IT HAD NO RIGHT TO SENTENCE FOR CONTEMPT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The speech I made in 1905 was in support of the candidate and the party which promised the labor movement relief from the system of federal injunctions which has grown up. They voiced my political beliefs.

"I made those speeches because I believe in the right of free speech. If because of the exercise of that right I must go to jail, and I would feel the loss of my liberty keenly, I will face that jail sentence and will not flinch."

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made that statement today in the supreme court. He admitted that he made speeches in Indianapolis and Baltimore which attorneys prosecuting in that case were contempt of court. At Indianapolis he was reported to have said:

"I am rejoiced from discussing this case (the Buck Grove Co. case). I may go to jail for discussing it, but I shall discuss it. If I do not I shall explode."

Mr. Gompers disregarded the instructions of his counsel, Alton B. Parker, and answered questions which could have been avoided by strict court procedure.

Mitchell Explains Action.

President Gompers was excused from the witness stand to permit John Mitchell to testify. Mr. Mitchell stated under oath that he had not signed editorials and circulars from the American Federationist in the boycott case, from which sentence for contempt developed, but he did not disclaim co-responsibility for them. He was asked about his speeches at Toronto and Indianapolis, in which he scored the injunction issued by Justice Gault and the contempt sentences imposed by Justice Wright.

Mr. Mitchell broke instantly into the face of Justice Wright as he began. He spoke quietly, but feelingly.

"When I was sentenced to nine months in prison," he said, "I felt it keenly. It was under peculiarly trying circumstances that I discussed it afterwards. I felt then, and feel now, that this court had no right and should not have the right to sentence me to prison for contempt."

"It was for the welfare of the American workmen that I spoke. I wanted to arouse my fellow workmen to the crisis which is developing in this country because of the abuse of the injunction power, which, in my opinion, has done much to lessen the confidence of the people in the integrity of the courts."

Mitchell, admitted authorship of a book and speech before the National Civic Federation, in which he expressed the opinion that injunctions, invading legal and moral rights, should be resisted and disobeyed.

TRY TO SHOW SWIFTS HAD KNOWLEDGE TEST SYSTEM

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Testimony tending to show that Louis F. Swift, Edward F. Swift, Charles H. Swift and Francis A. Fowler, described as the Swift group of defendants, had personal knowledge of the test cost and margin system which the government declares played an important part in the operation of the alleged combination in restraint of trade, was given at the trial of the 10 packers today.

District Attorney Wilkerson brought out that there had been no material change in the system of Swift & Co. in 12 years.

Arthur F. Rogers, head of the account sales department of Swift & Co., said that the weekly summaries on the test cost and margins were sent by him to Louis F. Swift, Edwin F. Swift, Charles H. Swift and Francis A. Fowler.

Leo M. Lester, assistant manager of Swift & Co.'s dressed beef department, testified that he received his instructions from the four defendants, who were officers of the company. He said copies of all summaries of test cost, margins and shipments were sent to the four defendants in the form of daily and weekly reports.

"Did you ever consult with Louis F. Swift and the other three defendants in reference to the conduct of your department?" asked Government Counsel Godman.

"Yes. They gave me instructions whenever it was necessary," replied the witness.

"How often did you talk with them about the business?"

"Sometimes every day and sometimes not oftener than once a week."

Energy Boiled Down

Plenty of Power and not a Grain Of It Goes to Waste

"Condensed Energy Reaches Its Limit" is a newspaper headline that might fitly apply to Ozonimium.

The energy to overwhelm tuberculosis germs so that their progress in the lungs is stopped.

The energy to store up force for a time of need, like an attack of cold or such severe strain of work as undermines the strength.

The energy of clean, rich blood.

The energy for work of play, that comes with beautiful nourishment.

That is condensation-energy.

And it is condensed energy. Everything in Ozonimium is an energizer.

Chief of all is the Norway Gold Medal Cod Liver Oil, pure, fresh, wholesome, the richest product of the northern seas.

Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda and chemically pure Glycerine add to the general fund of energy.

For all who are thin, pale, weak, worn or wasted, this is the most important news in the paper.

DENVER POLICE DISCOVER COUNTERFEITING PLANT

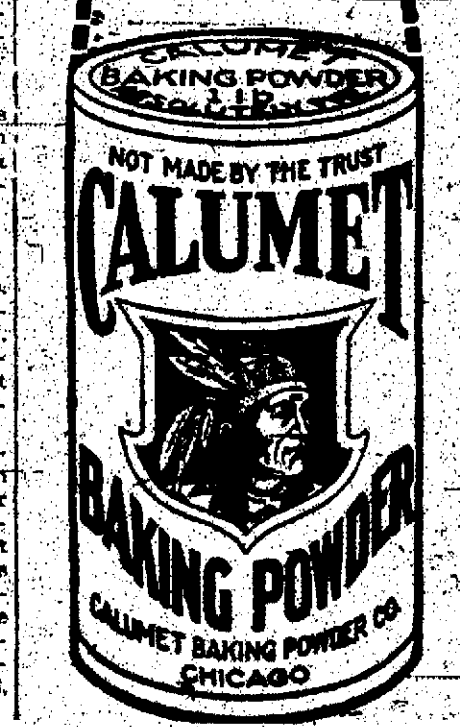

DENVER, Feb. 8.—Federal authorities and detectives tonight searched the residence of George Burns on South Broadway in Denver and found a complete plant for the manufacture of half dollars. Burns was taken before United States Commissioner Hinsdale and in default of $1,000 bond, went to jail, pending the setting of a date for preliminary hearing.

BACHELORS FIND IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Feb. 5.—Within a week after the issuing of the catalog of the Grant County Bachelors' club for their 1912 leap year matrimonial campaign one of the members has obtained a bride; a second is engaged and a third is said to be slipping, having been the recipient of a leap-year proposal.

It is likely the bride of the first marriage, who is a Hutchinson girl, will say hers was not a mail-order match, and, strictly speaking, was not the result of the issuing of the catalog.

But Ralph Beatty, whose marriage to Miss Eva Delano of Hutchinson is announced, is an active member of the Bachelors' club, was listed in the catalog of marriageable young bachelors recently issued, and he is the first of the club to become a has-been.

Beatty, who owns an extensive ranch in Grant county, was married to Miss Delano, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Delano of No. 309 Twelfth avenue West.

The marriage was a complete surprise to all. The young couple slipped over to Newton, where the ceremony was performed.

Not until Beatty arrived at New Ulisses with his bride two days later did his friends and the other members of the Bachelors' club know that No. 1 had happened.

When the club held its annual banquet Beatty was the recipient of hearty congratulations. The other 44 Grant county bachelors are now spurred on to still more eager activity by the success of Beatty.

At the banquet of the Bachelors' club this toast was drunk: "May we all be as lucky as Beatty."

Expressions From Powers Expected.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—It is hoped and confidently believed here that the German-American notes setting forth the views of the two governments on conditions in China will lead to formal declarations by all the interested powers on the same lines.

Germany, from the beginning of the disaster in China, has taken the same stand as the United States and has expressed her accord with the suggestions for a common policy in China, which Secretary Knox has submitted several times to the powers. The latest steps were taken on German initiative but the credit belongs equally to Washington.

The Kreuz Zeitung sees in the notes a warning that certain powers which are seeking special advantages in China must count on Germany and American opposition to their plans.

Pres. Sun for Christian Church.

NANKING, Feb. 8.—Prof. C. D. Tenny, Chinese secretary at the American Legation at Peking, and Wilbur T. Gracey, United States consul at Nanking, today paid a visit to President Sun Yat Sen unofficially at his residence.

The Republican official gazette contains today a letter from President Sun Yat Sen to a Chinese Christian pastor endorsing his petition for an independent Christian church. The president blames the Manchus for complications which have arisen between the missionaries and their governments. He wishes them every success and promises them his support in the establishment of a Christian church on broad national lines.

SUPPORTERS OF INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM VICTORS

Defeat Resolution to Censure President Bigelow Introduced in Ohio Constitutional Convention

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 8.—After hearing an address at noon today by Governor Harrison in which he took strong ground against incorporating a clause providing for statewide initiative and referendum in the new constitution, supporters of the proposed initiative and referendum plank won a decisive victory in the constitutional convention at Columbus today.

The governor, in his address, said the idea of direct legislation still is in an experimental stage and that Ohio would do well to wait till it has been given a thorough trial in other states. He defined his own position on the subject as being the attitude of "the man from Missouri."

The declaration of the governor came in the nature of a sensation to the supporters of the initiative and referendum among delegates in the convention, coming as it did at a time when that body was about to take up for consideration a resolution which had been introduced by Delegates Halliwell, of Allen county.

The Halliwell resolution, backed by opponents of the initiative and referendum, proposed to censure President Bigelow for having secured pledges from many members to abide by caucus action on that subject. The resolution declared that the action of the president of the convention in securing pledges for caucus support of the initiative and referendum was unfair.

Resolution Is Tabled

Following the address of Governor Harrison and the close of an arduous debate, the convention late today tabled the resolution, the vote standing 50 to 45. President Bigelow led the debate on the resolution declaring that it was being supported by "reactionists" and asserting that it was the franchise of women.

Attorney Accuses Hetty Green of "Attempt to Extort" Money on No

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Hetty Green, known as the richest woman in the world, "attempted to extort money from William Randolph Hearst according to C. M. Bovee, attorney for the editor, who today obtained an order court directing Mrs. Green to show cause why she should not be compelled to accept $275,000, with interest up last Monday, in payment of a mortgage she held on Hearst properties.

Mrs. Green, Bovee states, refused to cancel the mortgage until paid $1,100 additional interest, which he said the richest woman claimed when Mrs. Hearst's representative called on her last Monday.

Today Bovee withdrew the order saying that Mrs. Green had capitulated and turned over the mortgage for an amount named by Mr. Hearst.

"The charge that I tried to extort money is absurd. I simply asked Mrs. Hearst's representatives to wait on the receipt of my $275,000 who was handling the business and when they refused added 30 days interest to which I believed I was entitled under the law."

was necessary to secure the caucus support to prevent the initiative a referendum plank being lost because of divergence of views of its friends regarding matters of detail.

That a clause providing for equal suffrage will be reported favorably, the committee on women's suffrage of the Ohio constitutional convention was convinced this evening after hearing at which leading advocates suffrage for women had made a dress.

Chairman Kilpatrick said that 15 of the 21 members of the committee favor "reactionists" and asserting that it was the franchise of women.

AROUSING PUBLIC OPINION

THE CIVIC LEAGUE, which is doing more good work than most people suppose, publishes a quarterly bulletin which usually contains a meaty editorial. The last number has this pertinent comment on criticisms of the League's work:

The League is freely criticized—and profit by it. The only criticism we do not enjoy is the variety offered by those who find it easier to stand aside and find fault than to put their shoulder to the wheel and do their part in trying to set right what they believe to be wrong. On the other hand we meet with all kinds of encouragement, and feel much satisfaction as we watch the increased tendency on the part of our members to take up the burden of civic life. They realize that it is futile to labor for ideal conditions in the home, while reeking nothing of the insanitary, immoral, antisocial and generally harmful conditions that their carefully guarded children must encounter the moment they cross the threshold. They realize that there is nothing particularly womanly in devoting all their energies to their own home and children, content that less fortunate little ones should be the victims of a state of affairs for which every woman, as a citizen, is surely responsible.

Colorado Springs probably does not differ from other communities in its possession of a numerous class who, for want of a better term, are best described as "knockers." Perhaps they are a necessary element of the population, at any rate, they are inevitable. Like the poor, they are always with us, but a redeeming fact is the ever-present possibility of their conversion. Many a man whose influence is habitually exerted against needed reforms and improvements is merely the victim of misinformation, or a lack of information, and will see the light if somebody takes the trouble to place it before him. At any rate, he is no more unreasonable than the reformer who angrily denounces everybody that does not immediately accept his own views of public questions.

Of course there is another class of public COMES BEFORE REFORMATION for whom no hope of conversion can be entertained—the people who are against new ideas simply because they are new and without respect to their worth. This sort of opposition is firmly founded on a mixture of narrow, unreasoning ignorance and stinginess. But it is safe to say that in the average American city (and we believe that Colorado Springs is above the average) a majority of the population is sufficiently endowed with sound commonsense and public spirit to recognize the merit in a worthy reform measure when it is fully explained to them.

But first of all the explanation must be made; the people "must be shown"—and this is why the attainment of reforms is a slow and laborious process, usually discouraging to those who bear the brunt. Strange as it may seem, it is often difficult even to convince the public that certain conditions are bad enough to need changing. A few individuals who have investigated those conditions may have found them to be actually appalling, but the general public, not having made such an investigation, is blissfully unaware of the truth and therefore indifferent.

There are a number of conditions in Colorado Springs for the betterment of which there is urgent need—for instance, the present inefficiency of our system of protecting the public health and especially of preventing tuberculosis infection. A great deal of hard hammering will have to be done before the public is thoroughly informed on this subject, but when once informed it will be aroused, and information will bring reformation.

RECORD-BREAKING EXPORTS

FOR the first time in its history the United States has sold to foreign nations, in one year, manufactured goods worth more than one billion dollars. The year recently ended was not considered an especially prosperous business year, but just the same American manufacturers succeeded in establishing a new record in their sales abroad. The total for 1911, as reported by the Bureau of Statistics, was $1,001,972,863.

It is easier to grasp the meaning of these figures by the aid of comparisons. Exports of manufactures from the United States have more than doubled in ten years, and quintupled in twenty years. In 1891 they aggregated only $190,000,000; in 1901, $447,000,000. Thus it is plain that our foreign commerce has been growing recently at an astounding rate, or more accurately, our exports of manufactures. The growth of foreign sales of raw products has not been so rapid. This is in keeping with our steady tendency to become more and more a manufacturing nation. Goods which formerly were shipped abroad in a raw state to be manufactured and thereby multiplied in value in Europe, are now manufactured at home.

This is made especially apparent in considering the statistics dealing with the four leading articles of domestic manufactures—iron and steel, copper, mineral oil, and wood. Twenty, or even ten, years ago these products were usually shipped to Europe in a raw state. In 1891 we exported iron and steel manufactures to the value of only $34,000,000, but last year this figure had increased to $250,000,000. An even greater growth is shown in the case of copper manufactures. $9,000,000 twenty years ago as compared with $103,000,000 last year. In the same period exports of wood manufactures jumped from $23,000,000 to $91,000,000, and those of refined mineral oil from $41,000,000 to $100,000,000. These four articles supply more than one-half of the entire exportations of manufactures from this country.

The report adds:

American manufactures are sold in all parts of the civilized world. Last year the exports of agricultural implements from the United States to Russia aggregated $273,203, those to Canada and Argentina, each about $6,000,000, to Germany, $2,378,953 and to France, $3,088,288. About three and one-third million dollars worth of automobiles went to the United Kingdom last year, and nearly double that sum to Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Argentina, as well as to Canada, are taking large amounts of railway equipment. The value of freight and passenger cars alone sent to each of these countries last year ranging from $1,000,000 to $2,500,000. Europe took nearly $1,250,000 worth of American clocks and watches in 1911, and Canada an almost equal amount. Our growing exports of copper pigs are mostly sent to the industrial countries of Europe. All grand divisions and practically all important countries are represented in our high record exports of iron and steel in their numerous forms—rails, typewriters, structural forms, cast registers, adding machines, locomotives, sewing machines, windmills, printing presses, etc. Cuba, Canada and Great Britain offer large and growing markets for our boots and shoes.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

INFORMATION WANTED.
To the Editor of The Gazette:
We, the undersigned city taxpayers of this city and residents thereof, cannot understand why it is that we have our boosters organization, home-trading and other similar organizations which are supposed to be encouraged for the purpose of the upbuilding of Colorado Springs, and to benefit our home-merchants.

Our public buildings are supposed to be built and maintained by taxing all property subject to taxation. Public officials receive their salaries in like manner. Nonresidents contribute nothing toward this expense, neither do non-taxpayers, and why should our public officials reverse this idea by using their power to distribute funds so collected for improvements and maintenance to non-taxpayers and nonresidents when it is possible to find those that do, and have for years, contributed their proportion of this expense and at a reasonable figure—quality considered. And we cannot understand why public officials can put us on the back just before election and forget us when there is an estimate to be given on public works that which we are entitled to. If all of our citizens adopted this same method of home-trading as has been practiced by our boosters, as we call them, we believe there would be more empty storerooms in our little city which would require a stronger tonic than could be put up by the merchants or any other boosters organization.

ADAMS' ADDRESS.

To the Editor of The Gazette:
I would call the attention of your readers to the artist when Mr. Charles Frank Adams of New York City made here from Saturday to Tuesday. Mr. Adams comes under the auspices of the Direct Legislation league, which urges on all those who are interested in the big social and economic problems of the day. The opportunity of hearing him. The league has arranged especially for an address by Mr. Adams on "The Social Organism," to be given in the attractive rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in the Burns building, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Men and women are cordially invited.

Mr. Adams, who is returning from a lecture tour of the Pacific coast, is an attorney of many years experience and has been connected with many cases involving questions of international law which have been brought before the United States supreme court. He has always been a profound student not only of the law but of all national questions. He brings to the consideration of public questions a trained mind, a deep sympathy with those who suffer from present injustices and a gift of winning oratory which holds his auditors attention.
THEO. M. FISHER.
Colorado Springs, Feb. 8.

THE LEAGUE SONG.

To the Editor of The Gazette:
Having printed in Open Parliament a letter over my signature, please allow me space for a few words. The letter was written by me, the expense of printing and mailing was paid for by the committee of the league referred to. At the league convention that was held here last fall, the song "Turn Your Face to the Sun" (words by Jennie Van Allen) was presented for adoption along with other compositions submitted. The league convention, having been postponed, that severed my connection with the undertaking. However the controversy may end, it still remains a fact that the American Woman's league has never adopted a national song and anything to the contrary is a misleading statement.

A CANADIAN TO CANADIANS.

From the Chicago Tribune.
Mr. Phillips Thompson of Toronto, affectionately known to the older generation of Canadians as "Jimmie Briggs of Colocomb university," puts considerable emphasis on certain attributes of his fellow countrymen in a letter to the Toronto Globe as the subject of Canadian literature. The editor of the Globe, commenting on the communication, finds in it serious indictment coming from a veteran journalist and humorist. "In whose satire there was no malice, in whose humor there was no bitterness," writes Mr. Thompson, "will not wonder to the enormous self-conceit, the sycophantic hero worship, the pocket patriotism, the hypocritical tradition of 'loyalty,' the antiquated theological conceptions, and the dense economic ignorance—characteristic of the Canadian public."

There has been bitterness somewhere in the experience of the "gentle Jimmie Briggs." The editor of the Globe, who is a quiet, unassuming Canadian, has not failed to laugh at their own follies, are too intolerant to conventional, and too narrow minded. Antisocial laughter is a blessing enjoyed by maturity. Before it was given to Americans they had committed enormities in the name of patriotism and were unaware of their own grotesqueness. Healthy laughter and braggadocio do not grow well in the same garden. Mr. Thompson would have covered his case if he had said that Canada's young in nationality.

Sunflower Philosophy

Sometimes I get tired of my writing, and think with some heartrending groans, of those who make business of fighting, and gather in bushels of bones. Sometimes I grow tired of the battles I fight out in my readers as rhymes, and think of the Mahomuts and Goteches who wallow in diamonds and dimes. Sometimes I grow tired of the bustle of breaking cheap words from their stems, and wish I was old Pastor Russell with whiskers all streaked with gold. Sometimes I get tired of the million disfigurements marring my face, and wish I was lovely like Lillian, a vision of beauty and grace. My worries—I simply can't sink 'em, they float like the leaves on the river. I wish I was Liddy E. Plinkham, dispensing my back action pills. I wish I was J. Rockefeller, with seventeen kinds of a roll, when I push myself down to the cellar and look at what's left of the coal. But, happiness soon reappearing, I put all my gloom on the shelf, and go around whooping and cheering, and saying: "I'm glad I'm myself!"

THE DAILY CHIT-CHAT

How often do you read any poetry?
A modern English essayist, has recently announced his conviction that "many excellent persons if they were confronted with the alternatives of reading Paradise Lost, and going around Trafalgar Square at noonday on their knees in sackcloth, would choose the ordeal of public ridicule."

I fancy that statement is a trifle strong, and yet I certainly agree with the underlying belief that very few people nowadays care to read poetry. Again I ask, "How often do you read poetry?" You don't read poetry? You glance over one of the little magazines, poemlets, that take perhaps a half-minute to read, but how often do you sit down and read poetry as you would read a novel or a newspaper, half an hour or an hour at a time?

What difference does it make, you say, whether you do or not?

My friend, the essayist, has undoubtedly heard you say that you read poetry, but he has not heard you read it. You should read poetry, he says, because "imaginative poetry is the highest form of literature. It yields the highest form of pleasure and teaches the highest form of wisdom." In a word, there is nothing to compare with it.

He makes these remarks in the course of a little book telling the ordinary business man how, despite the demands of business and social life, he can still keep on feeding his mind, instead of letting it die of starvation. He wants the business man to save six or seven hours a week for this purpose, and one of the ways in which this time is to be employed is in reading poetry.

This man is one of the foremost men of letters, and one of the most brilliant men in England. Nor is he just a dreamer.

On the contrary, he is a man of affairs, a very busy man, and he knows how to talk to other busy men.

He also is a man with definite ideas. He doesn't just say "read poetry" and let it go at that. Here is his more definite outline, for the willing to be poetry reader.

"If poetry is what is called a sealed book to you, begin by reading Hazlitt's essay on the nature of poetry in general. It is difficult to imagine the mental state of the man who, after reading this essay, will not vigorously set himself to reading some poetry before his next meal."

The Great Conflict

A Half Century Ago Today
FEBRUARY 9, 1862

Brie. Gen. Charles F. Stone of the Union army was arrested at Washington at 2 o'clock in the morning by a posse of the provost marshal's force and sent to Fort La Fayette, New York harbor. He was charged with misbehavior at the battle of Ball's Bluff, with holding correspondence with the enemy before and after the battle of Ball's Bluff, and of receiving Confederate officers in his tent; with treacherously permitting the enemy to build a fort or strong work without notification under his guns since the battle of Ball's Bluff, and of a treacherous design to expose his force to capture and destruction by the enemy under pretense of orders for a movement from the commanding general, which orders had not been issued.

Because he had interrupted upon a private meeting in the chambers of the war department in the search for news, Dr. Ives, a correspondent of the New York Herald, was ordered under arrest by Secretary Stanton, charged with being a spy and with violating the rules and regulations of the war department.

Captain Constable, testing the United States mortar boats in the Mississippi river, below Cairo, demonstrated that 15-inch shells, filled with sand, could be thrown to a distance of three and one-half miles. The flight of the shells occupied 31 seconds. Filled with powder, the shells could be thrown much farther.

Capt. David Glasgow Farragut was appointed to the West gulf blockading squadron.

Erickson's Monitor, a recent addition to the Union navy, and considered by naval constructors generally to be a ridiculous freak, appeared in Hampton road as the Merrimack was returning to destroy the remnant of the Union fleet, and put the iron-clad to flight, after a heavy engagement at close range. The Monitor was conceded to have saved the national vessels from destruction.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Feb. 8.—The threatened strike of the employees of the Rock Island arsenal collapsed today when cards were offered to a few employees and were accepted. The First Gray Hair Sign of Age

EASY WAY TO PRESERVE NATURAL COLOR OF THE HAIR AND MAKE IT GROW.

A hairless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to its natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and lustre, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is a easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion. All that is necessary is to use the Remedy of Woods' Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color. In a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

Don't neglect your hair, for it goes further than anything else to make or mar your good looks. You can keep your hair in its natural color, and get rid of fifty cents a bottle, and your druggist will give you money back if you are not satisfied after using. Purchase a bottle today. You will never regret it when you realize the difference it will make in your appearance. Special agent, the Colorado Springs Drug Co., 101 S. Tejon St.

Romance and Temptation

(Copyrighted, 1912, by Laura Jean Libbey.)

Strange as it may seem, there are girls who never give a thought to love, or have a wish for a lover in their early youth.

These are usually girls who have missions in life—duties which grow out of every other desire. The girl who works in a store all day long and toils for an invalid mother after she goes home at night has no time to indulge in romance and its sweet dreaming fancies. She sleeps too soundly to have them enter even into her dreams. Those who deserve it do not always get the great reward in this life which should be theirs.

It is certainly a cruel fate when such a girl meets a man who would woo her and who is entirely unworthy of her. Her judgment says, "Do not encourage him." The loneliness in her heart pleads, "You need some one to love you." When she looks the matter calmly in the face she realizes that if she married him she would have to support him; that with every year of her life she would be poorer and poorer. She knows that there would come a time in her life when she would not be able to work any more. What would happen then?

She would be too proud to beg; too honest to steal. Her life's road would lead to the poorhouse. Yet, in the face of all this common sense reasoning, her temptation is great to marry him, to marry a man who might follow her. Romance is ever linked with its temptations, of one kind or another, as the rose, which lures us to gather it has its briars.

The sentimental idea of saving a soul is a beautiful thought to an earnest woman. Romance glides the probabilities and casts over them a rosy haze. Although sensible in other matters, she is apt to overestimate her abilities in this regard. She loses sight of the hard facts, that it is beyond human ingenuity to convert a bad egg into a good one. She believes that love has the power to work miracles. She is tempted to risk her all upon its possibilities.

Romance and temptation outweigh her better judgment, and finally she marries the man. His golden promises she finds to be but tinsel. Where there is love on but one side romance is quickly shattered. The bandage of faith, which has been bound by the golden cord of confidence, becomes loosened and falls from her eyes. She finds that married happiness must be founded on a steeper foundation than romance, and that temptation is a fog which is not easily lifted when there is no sunshine to scatter it. If she could ward the world of girls who are tempted to marry through romance she would beg them to withstand the temptations. In marriage, even more than any other venture in life, for it is a venture at best, girls should look before they leap if they would rejoice over their romances instead of weeping over them.

COLORADO BOOSTERS IN CITY TOMORROW

Every Section of State Will Be Represented at Meeting in the Antlers Hotel

Plans for the biggest year Colorado has ever known, in an advertising way, will be outlined tomorrow afternoon at the Antlers hotel, at a meeting of representatives of civic bodies, hotel men and boosting clubs from every county in the state. Thousands of tourists, in addition to the regular patrons, will be brought to the state as a result. It is expected, and every section will benefit accordingly, in the opinion of the enthusiastic men back of the get-together meeting.

Here are some of the things the delegates plan to do at the meeting: Arrange for the expenditure of at least $15,000 in the campaign of publicity in all parts of the country, but especially the south and southwest.

Broaden the scope and facilities of the information bureau of the Rocky Mountain Hotel Men's association in the chamber of commerce building, Denver, and establish several smaller branches at advantageous points in Denver.

Establish branch information bureaus at Colorado Springs and other cities in various parts of the state.

Arrange for moving pictures with Colorado views, to be shown in every section of the country.

Secure the cooperation of all railroads entering Colorado by inducing them to display Colorado literature at all of their passenger ticket offices.

Plan road races from Texas, Tennessee and other states of the south and west.

Committee on Arrangements.

The committee on arrangements is composed of Charles B. Hamilton, of the Oxford hotel, Denver, president of the Rocky Mountain Hotel Men's association; C. W. Adams of the Adams hotel, Denver; Martin W. Rowley of the Metropole, Denver; and W. S. Dunning of the Antlers hotel. Calvin H. Morse of the Brown Palace will represent the Denver Convention league, while Samuel F. Dutton and Frank Padgett of the Albany and others will be on hand.

Lee Haney has been temporarily selected as publicity agent, and one of the questions to be decided will be whether it is advisable to keep one man engaged for the year in distributing literature and personally visiting the sections where the campaign is to be vigorously waged for tourists. Colorado Springs and the Pike's Peak region will benefit particularly if this is done.

The Union Pacific has promised to place the literature of Colorado in its offices at Cincinnati, Louisville, Dallas, San Antonio and a dozen other cities.

"The meeting Saturday in no way conflicts with the work of the Denver Convention league," said President Hamilton of the Rocky Mountain Hotel Men's association. "It's a get-together gathering, and we are going to try and have all Colorado cooperate for the good of the state."

The boosting convention will conclude with a complimentary banquet by Manager Dunning of the Antlers.

YOUR STOMACH FEELS FINE IN FIVE MINUTES

Take a Little Diapiesin Now and Your Stomach Will Feel Fine Five Minutes Later.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of indigestion or some form of stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Diapiesin. Then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea, Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or a flat-out-of-order stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe theirs is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake. Your real trouble is what you eat does not digest. Instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefies in the digestive tract and intestines, and besides, poisons the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Diapiesin.

BADLY INJURED IN FALL FROM 20-FOOT SCAFFOLD

A 20-foot fall from a scaffolding yesterday came near being fatal for Otis M. Rhoades, a carpenter, 450 West San Miguel street. Attending physicians say he probably will lose his right foot, the result of a compound fracture of the bone near the ankle and the tearing of the big artery. In addition, Rhoades fractured his right arm and was severely bruised about the face and body.

The accident happened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rhoades was at work on the roof of the new Joseph Stenhouse home in Manitou. He was about to shift his foot when he lost his balance and fell to the ground. He was unconscious when picked up.

Dr. H. N. Ogilvie of Manitou was first called and later Dr. E. L. McKinnis was summoned. The injured man was taken to Glickner sanatorium, and last night his condition was said to be quite serious.

Rhoades lost considerable blood as a result of the tearing of the big artery in his ankle. In addition, several pieces of bone were removed. Dr. McKinnis says that Rhoades may escape an operation for the removal of his foot, but he always will have a stiff ankle.

SERIOUSLY ILL, IS RUSHED HOME TO SEE HIS FAMILY

The private car of General Manager W. N. Foreacre of the Southern railroad, was placed Wednesday night at the disposal of F. Brantley, son of a millionaire cotton magnate, of Macon, Ga., that the son might have a chance to see his relatives before he died. Young Brantley is a sufferer from tuberculosis, and for the last two months has been a patient at the Glickner sanatorium.

The crisis was reached a few days ago, and it was the wish of young Brantley and his folks that he be taken south immediately. Foreacre is a relative of the Brantley family, and came here Wednesday to carry the sick man south in his private car. Miss O'Brien, a trained nurse at the city, and other attendants are on the train, which left here late Wednesday night.

Colorado City DEPARTMENT

Chased by Husband, Woman Swears Out a Warrant, but Relents

Charged with chasing his wife and 6-months-old baby out of doors at midnight in the bitter cold Monday night when they were nearly frozen before reaching shelter, Gipsy Joe Adams of 1025 Lincoln avenue, Colorado City, was arrested Tuesday morning. In spite of the cruelty to which she and her child are alleged to have been subjected the woman refused to prosecute her husband, and the case was dropped. Mrs. Adams even paid the costs.

When Adams came home his wife told the officers he raised havoc in the house by smashing furniture and dishes, chasing his wife from room to room and threatening her life until she was forced to flee clad only in a thin kimono. She snatched the child from the bed in which it was sleeping, she said because of the threat of its father to "cut its throat."

The Adams home is in the northwest part of the city, some distance from other houses. The woman made her way to a rooming house at 616 Colorado avenue, where she spent the night. Early the next morning she swore out the complaint in Justice Faulkner's court, then regretted, paid the costs of the case, and said that she had "better go and get her husband his breakfast or he would be cross."

This is said to not be the first trouble that the couple have had. The officers say that they have had trouble with Adams because of his drinking. He is well-to-do and the owner of some property here.

NEW SIATE TO BAR JOHNSON-FLYNN GO

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Feb. 8.—Governor McDonald this evening announced that he was bitterly opposed to the idea of holding the Johnson-Flynn fight in New Mexico, and would use the state rangers and militia to prevent the battle if necessary. While New Mexico since it became a state, has no law against prize fighting, the governor said he would, as soon as the legislature convenes on March 11, send in a special message urging the enactment of an anti-prize fight law.

In his statement this evening, the governor declared that, while he has no objection to properly conducted boxing contests, he will not, if he can stop it, permit a contest between a negro and a white man.

PEACE TREATIES GOOD ONLY AS DECLARATIONS

Are Lame and Impotent as Obligation to Peacefully Settle Disputes, Says Senator Works

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The ratification of the pending arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France, though lame and impotent as an obligation to peacefully settle disputes, was urged before the senate today by Senator Works of California. He declared that if the representatives of the three great powers had intended to exclude from the terms of the agreement every dispute that a nation was likely to go to war about, they could not have done it more fully.

"Questions of national honor," he said, "are not to be settled by the respective rights of the citizens of the contracting parties and almost every other matter of dispute of any consequence is excluded from the effect of the treaties by the definition of justifiable questions. As a declaration in favor of peace the treaties are commendable and as such I support them."

As a means of settling disputes between nations in a way to avoid war they are almost wholly without force or merit.

Senator Works said that the United States government was puffed up with power and wealth and consumed with lust for more power and greater wealth. He declared that the government could remove the greatest obstacle to the attainment of peace and save millions of dollars of unnecessary expense by surrendering the additional territories across the sea, acquired by little better than a sham naval battle followed by a course of deceit and intrigue.

"We have subjugated and held in practical slavery," he added, "a whole nation, half-civilized and speaking a foreign tongue. We have taken over colonies and other peoples with no better reason or excuse. We have no right in law or equity to hold or interfere with the territory or liberty and independence of these people."

Senator Works advocated an alliance between the great powers to estrangle commercially and otherwise any nation that went to war and to bind themselves not to increase their armaments.

Winter surf-bathing in California

Where December is like May.

Other ocean sports, too fishing for tuna, motor-boating, beach drives and the tang of salt air.

Acres of hotels and acres of roses. All in a semi-tropic environment.

Try a California winter of delight. It's a thousand times better than staying housed up in the frigid East.

A Santa Fe train will take you there. Fred Harvey, dining-car, dining-room and station-hotel service. On the way visit Grand Canyon of Arizona.

The California Limited—king of the limiteds—exclusively for first-class travel—runs every day—sleeper for Grand Canyon.

Santa Fe de-Luxe extra-lux train, Chicago and Kansas City to Los Angeles—runs once a week—America's finest train.

California Fast Mail—also Los Angeles Express and San Francisco Express—three daily trains—standard Pullmans, tourist sleepers and chair cars—all classes of ticket honored.

Religious Sect Forced to Return Money to Girls

DENVER, Feb. 8.—The Pentecostal union, a Colorado corporation composed of members of a religious sect known as the "jumpers," which was active in Denver in 1903, has paid back to Ida McJorlen and Zoe Vaughan, $1,806.35 which the district court said in 1908 that the girls had parted with under the belief that they were disposing of all their earthly possessions, and that once they would go to perdition. The suit was prosecuted under the auspices of the legal dispensary of the Denver Bar association. Miss McJorlen and Miss Vaughan filed their suit on May 2, 1907.

In their complaint they cited that on September 14, 1903, they attended a meeting conducted by the Pentecostal union and that under the excitement of religious fervor displayed by members of the sect they became hypnotized, by the belief that their souls would be burned with fire brought down from heaven upon them and that each of them would go to perdition unless they gave up all earthly possessions.

SKYSCRAPER TO REPLACE BURNED EQUITABLE BLDG.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The officers of the Equitable Life Assurance society have decided to rebuild on the old site of their headquarters in the financial district according to a statement published here today.

Cablegrams from J. P. Morgan, who is the controlling stockholder, are said to have been the main factor in the decision to rebuild. The ruins of the old building will be cleared away at once and work on the new structure will be under way within the next three months. The building will be more than two years under construction. It will probably be 30 stories in height, the plans for a 55-story structure having met with opposition. Although the state laws prevent the

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Except for the tobacco and copper shares, the stock market was almost stationary today. Prices of a few active issues rose at the opening, but quickly fell back in bear selling.

The copper stocks were the strongest features. Trading in these was influenced by the favorable monthly report of the Copper Producers' association. Amalgamated Copper was up 2 1/2, American Smelting 1 1/2 and the other copper points or more.

The tobacco stocks fluctuated violently for a time, owing to the announcement of the coming retirement of James B. Duke as president of the American Tobacco company to become head of the British-American tobacco company. American Tobacco broke 10 points. Liggett & Myers 7 and Lorillard 6. All of these stocks rallied sharply later in the day.

Reductions of the Bank of England's rate of discount from 4 to 3 1/2 per cent had been predicted by international bankers here, and the Bank of England's official rate was raised from 5 to 4 1/2 per cent, which now stands at 5 per cent, probably would be reduced on Monday.

The Bank of England's rate had stood at 4 per cent since last September, when it was raised from 3 1/2 to 4 per cent rate which prevailed all last summer. The bank's increase in proportion of reserve to liabilities from 48 1/2 per cent to 52 1/2 per cent places it in a strong position.

Two more shipments of gold were reported today. An additional $2,000,000 was engaged for transportation to Paris, bringing up the total on the present movement to $5,000,000. For South American shipment $250,000 was obtained. The loss in gold is expected to be an important item in the week's bank statement. On operations with the sub-treasury, the banks already have lost more than $6,000,000. At the same time receipts from the interior have diminished and $1,000,000 has been transferred to the sub-treasury to San Francisco. An appreciable cut in the surplus reserve at the end of the week is regarded as probable.

Buying of bonds was widely distributed and prices were held well. Total sales for the week were $2,000,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.
